fire and the explosion of several barrels of oil.

The fire extended to other buildings in the vicinity, and the loss will foot up in the neighborhood of $30,000.

The damage on the building 60 Pearl street is placed at $10,000, and Minetta & Co. s loss is said to be $10,000.

The third floor of this building is occupied by the Oriental Medical Drug Company, which loses $1,000.

George H. Williams & Co., commission merchants on the first floor and cellar, place their loss at $500.

The fire extended to 58 Pearl street, and damaged the building about $3,000. The first floor is occupied by Platt, Washburn & Co., wholesale liquor-dealers. William Tyler, in the same business has the second floor, and Park, Hiltorf & Co., occupy the third, fourth and fifth floors. They received damages amounting to about $5,000 between them. 62 Pearl street was damaged about and Nos. 32 and 34 Water street

$2,000, and Nos. 32 and 35 waster about $1,000.

The roof of No. 60, where the fire started, is slanting, and the firemen had difficulty in retaining a footing. When the explosions occurred it was thought some of them were injured, but they all turned up all right. The cause of the fire is unknown.

MARTHA HUER HERE AGAIN.

Comes in by Way of Canada and Cannot Be Beturned.

report has reached Dr. Joseph H Senner, Commissioner of Immigration that Martha Huer has returned to this Senner, Commissioner of Immigration, that Martha Huer has returned to this city, by way of Canada, from Hamburg.

Martha Bs the young woman who arrived here on the Augusta Victoria from Hamburg. She was accompanied by Max Linderbaum. In her affidavit to Buperintendent of Immigration Stump at Washington she acknowledged that she had been leading an immoral life. She was sent back to Europe Aug. 17.

Dr. Senner was somewhat surprised when he heard she had returned to this city. He said he was powerless to take any further steps to keep the young woman and again send her back. In fact, she can defy the United States Government, and laugh at the fullie efforts of the authorities to keep her out.

"This is the principal reason that Supt. Stump and I have earnestly urged that United States Inspectors be placed along the Canadian border," said Dr. Senner. "The Inspectors would stop just such persons from coming here.

"This is specially important in view of the fact that the Canadian Government has repudiated the agreement madis with Supt. Stump last Thereday by Deputy Canadian Minister of the Interior Burgess."

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN BEGUN. Call for Primaries Will Be Issued a

To-Night's Meeting. The political campaign on behalf of the Democracy will be opened to-night. The Executive Committee of Tammany Hall will hold a meeting in the Fourteenth Troops Quell a Riot Between Italians will hold a meeting in the Fourteenth Street Wigwam to issue the call for primaries to elect delegates to the State Convention. Primaries will be held in every one of the 1,141 election precincts. Each precinct will elect three delegates to the respective Assembly District Convention. The Assembly District Convention in turn will select three delegates to the State Convention.

The Republican State Committee has already opened its old headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Chief Clerk Reuben Fox and two typewriters are ready to do business. The Republicans are beginning their fat-frying early this year. They need money and plenty of it.

The Twenty-first District Republica organization is the first to elect dele-gates to the State Convention. The del-egates are William Brookfield, Chauncey M. Depew, James A. Blanchard, Wil-liam D. Murphy and Eugene Seligman.

Strange Story of a Cuban Girl Revealed by an Arrest.

Justice Walsh, in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, this morning issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Charlotte L. Polo, of 304 Adams Street. She is charged by Mrs. Isabella Marina Estenoz, of 32 Poplar street, with assault.

Mrs. Polo, in a counter charge, claims that Mrs. Estenoz ill-treated a girl from Cuba named Marina Estenoz, who was in her house for ten years. The girl, Mrs. Polo says, ran away from Mrs. Estenoz Aug. 23 and begged her for shelter.

The girl, who is a beautiful octoroon, has consulted Lawyers Kline and Rendwich, and now will sue Mrs. Estenoz to recover $2.250 pay for the time she was employed at her house.

Maxima had been a slave on the plantation of the Estenoz family at Cindad, Cuba. been continually in treated, never re-ceiving any salary.

The girl made the acquaintance of Mrs. Polo, who is also a beautiful octo-roon and elicited her sympathy by her tale.

Mrs. Esteoz says that yesleday Mrs.

Polo came to her house and demanded to explanation for alleged ill-treatment girl. Estenoz told Mrs. Polo to attend to her own business, whereupon she says the woman scratched her eyes and beat her on the face and head.

Mrs. Polo says that until she learned the story Madina, the servant, she was on the best terms with Mrs. Estenoz.
